Lillypilly takes sweet white trophy at 2013 Cowra Wine Show

Lillypilly Estate has won the Cowra Shire Council Trophy for Best Sweet White Table Wine of the Show at the 2013 Cowra Wine Show with its 2008 Noble Blend Family Reserve.

The Lillypilly 2008 Noble Blend Family Reserve has now won seven trophies and 11 gold medals at Australian and International Wine Competitions.

“We’re obviously very pleased to have found a worthy successor to our 2002 Noble Blend, which performed so very well over many years and won a total of 25 trophies and 30 gold medals,” said winemaker Robert Fiumara, whose family planted the Leeton vineyard in 1972 and produced its first botrytised wine in 1985.

The winning wine will be released in September through Lillypilly Estate’s cellar door and website (<http://www.lillypilly.com>), priced at $38.50 per 375ml bottle.
